

Violence against woman and children

... takes place daily

... is not your individual misfortune

... can affect any woman

... reflects the social balance of power

Women often shy away from discussing private emergency situations. We aim to encourage all women to stand up against abuse.

Threatened and abused women will find protection, anonymity and solidarity support with us.

There is no
justification for violence against women!

The Women's Shelter

offers refuge, accommodation and security to women and their children who are threatened or affected by violence.

We offer consultation and support for solving personal problems and help with settling economic and legal issues.

You have the opportunity to talk about your experiences of violence.

We offer children and adolescents support in coping with their experiences of violence.

You will receive orientation assistance in your new situation and recreational educational opportunities.

Life in the Women's Shelter

In the women's shelter, you share a home with other residents.

Kitchen, bathroom, living room and children's room are used and maintained jointly by the women of the respective floor.

You live with your children in your own room.

You provide for yourself and your children on your own responsibility.

Living together is regulated by house rules.
